Big Brothers Big Sisters of St. Joseph County to Hold 9th Annual Evening of Magic Dinner & Auction with Guest Speaker, South Bend Cubs Owner, Andrew Berlin

SOUTH BEND- Big Brothers Big Sisters of St. Joseph County is gearing up for their annual Evening of Magic, and this year is promising to be another one you will not want to miss. On Friday, September 30, at the Hilton Garden Inn/Gillespie Conference Center in South Bend from 6 pm-11pm, there will be a silent auction, a mouth-watering dinner and live auction, dancing and all in attendance will hear the owner of the South Bend Cubs, Andrew Berlin, who is the special speaker for the evening.

“I look forward to this event every year,” says Big Brothers Big Sisters Fund Development Director, Beth Berry. “It is an opportunity for the community to get together and do something fun, network with each other, and support our amazing mission here at BBBS all at the same time.”

Executive Director Deborah Burrow said that this event raised $$____, almost XX% of their annual budget.

“We count on our community so much to help us help all the littles that we are involved with each year,” Burrow added. “And no matter what we expect, it seems the community always outdoes even our incredibly high expectations.”

Tickets for this event are $75 for individuals and $250 for Patron Couple tickets, which includes recognition in the night’s program. You can purchase these tickets online at www.eveningofmagic.org or by phone at 574-234-7444.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of St. Joe County has a mission is to provide children facing adversity with strong and enduring, professionally supported one-to-one relationships that change their lives for the better, forever. Their vision is that all children achieve success in life.
